

Changing conditions for fighting economic crime

What constitutes an efficient criminal justice system

Bergen 30. Oct. 2013

09:00 Welcome by Asbjørn Strandbakken

09:05 Tina Søreide: An Efficient Criminal Justice System?

09:15 Framework Conditions for Crime Control (chair: Elin Skaar)

Jørn Jacobsen: The Tradition of Nordic Criminal Law: Justice as Efficiency, or Efficiency by Justice?

Arne Strand: Competing Priorities in Afghanistan- Criminal Justice versus War on Terror

Rasmus Wandall: Trust and Functionality in the Criminal Justice System

Debate

11:00 Moving in Different Pace: Why it Adds to the Crime Burden (chair: Ivar Kolstad)

Charles Kenny: Flying Starlings in International Development: The International Spillover Effects of Criminalization

Kjetil Bjorvatn: Competition for Resources: Importance of Governance, Implications for Corruption

Linda Gröning: Harmonization from a Legal Perspective

Debate

12:30 Lunch (Faculty of Law)

13:30 The Difficulty of Criminalizing Right (chair: Rasmus Wandall)

Peter Whelan: The Criminalization of Cartel Activity: A Sensible Choice?

Eva Gavrilova: Medical Marijuana Laws, Drug Sales and Crimes in the US

Siri Gloppen: Criminalization: Changing Incentives or norms?

Debate

15:00 Coffee

15:15 Linda Gröning: Lessons for the Criminal Justice System and Research

15:30 Tina Søreide: Concluding remarks