Book Launch

Lebanon: After the Cedar Revolution

by Dr Are Knudsen (Chr. Michelsen Institute) & Professor Michael Kerr (MEMS)

Introduction by Professor Rory Miller (MEMS)

‘As a work that explains the intricacies of Lebanese politics post-Hariri with clarity and precision, this cannot be surpassed.’
Clive Jones, Chair of Middle East Studies and International Politics, University of Leeds

18.00-20.00 Thursday 1 November 2012
Chapters, King’s Building,
Strand Campus,
King’s College London WC2R 2LS
RSVP: Professor Michael Kerr
e-mail: michael.r.kerr@kcl.ac.uk

This event is hosted by Middle East & Mediterranean Studies Programme, the Centre for the Study of Divided Societies and Hurst Publishers & Co.