

Jessica Schultz

Current position:	Project Coordinator Corruption (U4 Project)	CMI – Chr. Michelsen Institute P.O.Box 6033 Postterminalen N-5892 Bergen, Norway
Born	1973	Phone: 55 57 42 36
Citizenship:	American	E-mail: jessica.schultz@cmi.no

Key Qualifications

A lawyer by training, with a specialization in international human rights and refugee law. Thematically her work has focused on humanitarian protection, social and economic rights, and transitional justice. Currently she is working on judicial strategies to combat corruption and corruption in emergencies. She has served as a researcher and protection advisor in East and West Africa, the DRC and Sri Lanka. She has also worked in the US, China and Taiwan.

Publications and Articles:

Foreign Territory: The Internationalisation of EU Asylum Policy (2005)

Economic and Social Rights in the US: An Overview of the Legal Framework (2003)